Please to note the Advertising in this Annual. You will find here space given to our Church Schools; also a few things that preachers and churches want. I think every person or firm advertising in this Journal is perfectly reliable and can be trusted implicitly. I will be pleased if you will call upon them for such things as you need, and mention that you saw their ad. in the Kentucky Conference Minutes.--Editor.

Central Methodist

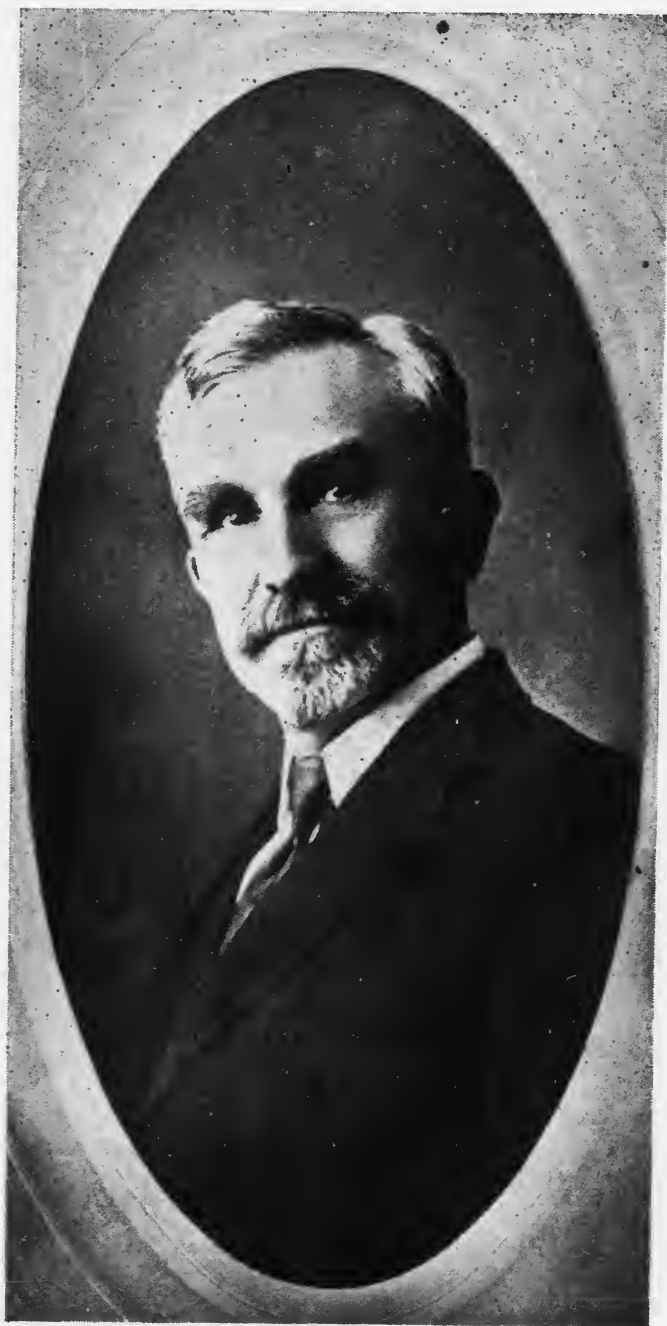

Trial subscriptions during November, 1916, at $1.00 per year; thereafter $1.50 a year.

Beginning in the first issue of January, 1917, the editor will give an article each week on his trip through Palestine. He went with the most famous party that ever toured the lands of the Bible. This trip ordinarily costs from $1000 to $1500. You can get it for the price of the paper one year.

"Whereas, In accordance with the action of their respective General Conferences, Commissions have been appointed to work out the details of a plan by which the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and the Methodist Episcopal Church may be reorganized and unified;

"Resolved, 1. That the Kentucky Conference of the M. E. Church, South, hails with joy the spirit of Christian unity abroad among the spiritual sons of John Wesley, and looks with great favor upon the efforts to bring together the scattered forces of American Methodism; provided always, that unification can be secured upon a basis that will be honorable and advantageous to the parties concerned. Otherwise, we would oppose any and all efforts looking to this end.

"Resolved, 2. That, with our own General Conference, we believe the unification of the Methodist Episcopal Church and the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, by the method of reorganization, is both feasible and desirable, inasmuch as it would eliminate waste, economize in the use of both men and money, and enable us to concentrate and use our forces to better advantage in the evangelization of our own and other lands.

"Resolved, 3. While we are fully aware that differences exist, and that great difficulties must be overcome before unification can be an accomplished fact, yet we believe that, under the blessing of God and through the prayers and patient efforts of His people, a way may be found, along the line of reorganization, by which this great end may be accomplished.

"Resolved. 4. That we have full confidence in the twenty-five Commissioners who will represent us in the pending negotiations, and believe them fully capable of guarding the interests of Southern Methodism in any agreement that may be reached. We hereby pledge them our most earnest prayers that they may be guided and sustained by Divine wisdom and strength, and we indulge the earnest hope that they may be able to bring back to our General and Annual Conferences a plan which will meet the approval of the Church they represent.

"Resolved, 5. That while there must be a full and free discussion of the issues involved, yet we deprecate, on the part of any one, by voice or pen, any expression that would in any way discredit our history or reflect upon the good and great men who gave us our Southern Methodism. On the other hand, we deprecate, on the part of any one, any expression that would impugn the motives or reflect upon the sincerity of either party to this great enterprise. We counsel our people to calmly and prayerfully await the results of the labors of the Commission having the matter in hand, being careful, in the meantime, to preserve the brotherly and Christian spirit, and to avoid all things that would tend to irritate and needlessly inflame."

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board held three sessions in which it seriously and prayerfully considered the responsibilities committed to it.

We note a slight increase in the payment upon assessments, bringing the amount to $4,067, being 83 per cent of the amount assessed.

After dividing with the General Board and adding amounts appropriated at last annual meeting, but not called for, we had for distribution, $3,334.34, which was dispensed as follows:

Jenkins, (renewed)	$600 00
Salt Well Church	350 00
Park Avenue Church	1,000 00
Newport Church	150 00
Walton Parsonage	300 00
Ghent Parsonage	300 00
Lawrenceburg Parsonage	300 00
Danville District Parsonage	300 00
Balance in Treasury	34 34
Total	$3,334 34

A loan was made to the Newport Church of $500.

The amounts asked for and needed by these applicants, far exceeded the amount we had to give. So again we urge effort to increase the income of the Board.

We think the church should be profoundly grateful for the success of our great chief, the General Secretary, as manifest,

First. In the increased receipts of the cause for the last fiscal year, amounting to $571,107; this being $75,308 greater than the income for the preceding year.

Second. In the gratifying growth of the Loan Fund capital, which stands now at $804,629. One million dollars is the goal to be reached before the close of the quadrennium. Our Conference Loan Fund is now $1,495.

Third. In the completion of the magnificent and handsomely equipped office building in Louisville, the permanent home of the Board.

We wish to bring to your minds the Sunday School Loan Fund, for the collection of which the General Board will furnish free of charge the regulation Birth-day Jar. In our Conference during the last year, only ten schools reported, aggregating $126. Let the General Secretary be put in communication with persons who might be induced to make contributions to the general Loan Fund.

The General Board is preparing to assist the church at large in its architectural problems, and hopes to be able soon to be of practical service in this matter. The Secretary is also preparing a manual, making clear the legal phases connected with the preparation of deeds, bequests, etc., thus securing such beyond danger from legal entanglement.

The Board has a variety of leaflet and booklet literature which, if wisely used, would increase enthusiasm and enlist support for the cause. It is requested that all presiding elders make provision for representation of this cause in their District Conferences.

Resolved, that we, the Kentucky Conference now in session at Nicholasville, Ky., do hereby subscribe the sum of three thousand dollars ($3000.00) which amount shall be equitably divided among the several Presiding Elders' Districts of the Conference, and that the Lay Leaders of these respective districts shall constitute a Committee who shall have in hand the special task of raising this fund during the ensuing Conference year, said Committee to be under the official direction of the Conference Lay Leader.

It will be understood that all amounts contributed after this date within the bounds of this Conference, whether by private subscription or public collection, shall be credited on this pledge.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We would express our great pleasure at the progress made during the past year by our two new universities.

The need for them is real, and vital in our Southern Methodism; and our great church can not afford to do less than to provide the funds that will enable them to meet all the demands of university standards. For they have been raised up not to satisfy a sentiment or supply a luxury; but to meet a crying need for higher Christian education, and technical professional training.

We approve the plan of the Commission for raising additional funds for Emory University, by asking from the territory covered by Tennessee and Kentucky the sum of $200,000.

We ask that the Conference endorse the following resolution of your Board:

"Resolved, That this Board recommends, to the Conference, co-operation in the campaign for $200,000 for Emory University after our Semi-Centennial Campaign for $50,000 is completed."

We recommend Emory University for our young people who desire to take either post graduate or professional courses.

We note with pleasure the presence and address of Dr. A. J. Lamar, one of the Educational Commissioners. Also the presence and service of Dr. Stonewall Anderson, Secretary of our General Board of Education.

We recommend co-operation with the Sunday School Board in observing Christian Education Day in the Sunday Schools.

We recommend endorsement of the following report of the Committee appointed by the Louisville and Kentucky Conferences.

"The Special Committee, appointed by the Kentucky and Louisville Conferences to formulate plans for joint operation of the educational institutions of the two conferences, met in the executive room of the new Board of Church Extension Building, Louisville, Ky., Friday afternoon, June 30th. The committee is composed of Dr. E. G. B. Mann, Dr. J. L. Clark, and Mr. R. M. Smith from the Kentucky Conference, and Dr. Frank M. Thomas, Dr. A. P. Lyon, and Sam M. Miller from the Louisville Conference. The entire committee was present and Dr. Mann was elected chairman and S. M. Miller secretary.

After a free and full discussion of the educational interests of Methodism in the State and the work done by the several schools belonging to the conferences, the following paper was offered by Dr. Thomas and unanimously adopted:

On account of some important questions yet to be settled concerning the status of one or two of our schools, and some financial problems concerning the educational interests in both conferences, we do not deem it wise at this time to inaugurate a system of joint control and operation. But we most sincerely pledge ourselves to the closest possible co-operation. And to this end we recommend and endorse Kentucky Wesleyan College as our Methodist college in Kentucky for young men, and Logan Junior College at Russellville for young ladies. For students below these college grades we recommend the academic department of Kentucky Wesleyan for students for that grade in the Kentucky Conference, and Lindsay-Wilson at Columbia, Ky., and the Vanderbilt Training School, at Elkton, for students of academic grade, in the Louisville Conference.

To this end and in order that the educational interests of both conferences may be brought into closer touch and relations we recommend that at the ensuing sessions of our two conferences the presiding bishops be requested to appoint, upon the nomination of the Board of Education, visiting committees of two ministers and one layman, who shall visit the schools of the two conferences during the next conference year and make full reports upon the work being done by these various institutions. Said visits by these two committees may be jointly or singly, as the chairmen of these two committees may determine, and at the invitation of the Boards of Education they may sit with them for advisory purposes."

We would express our high appreciation of the munificent gift of Col. ——— McClelland, of La Grange, Ky., who has turned over to our General Board of Education a farm, near West Port, in Oldham County, to be operated as an industrial school by our General Board of Education. We also commend the agency of Rev. W. S. Maxwell in securing this important gift.

We recommend that the assessment for Conference Education be placed at the same figure as last year, viz. $5,200; and that the same assessment of $600 be made for the help of young ministers.

The statistics are as follows:

Students	100
Teachers	10
Endowment	$82,194 93
New Endowment (Cash and Notes)	25,000 00
Value of property	121,500 00

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) E. G. B. MANN, Chairman.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education of the Kentucky Wesleyan College would submit the following report:

We call attention of the pastors and laymen of our Conference to what we might call the practical support of Christian education, which has its test and proof not only in financial support, but also in sending sons and daughters to our church schools. We can never expect to build up Christian education, so long as Christians send their children to other schools, to the neglect of the ones that stand for Christian influence and culture. If our church schools are not all that our people desire for their children then we need to immediately remedy such inadequacy with equipment and students.

We are glad to report that the enrollment at the opening of the College this September has already exceeded the entire enrollment last year, and there is a larger per cent prepared to do regular college work.

The faculty of the college is made up of men well prepared to do the work expected of them in a real first class college. They are men of religious character, three of the number being ministers of the Gospel, and have had their training in colleges and universities. And in addition to this, four members of the faculty are taking summer work in the University of Chicago looking to degrees.

We would speak in some detail of the religious influences at the College.

In the first place, the city of Winchester is a saloonless town that has a reputation for its high moral tone, and the unusual church going habits of its people. The pastor and people of our local church have taken great interest in the students, and have shown them kind attentions that have contributed to their religious welfare.

The student body is made up of a good percent of young men, who are preparing for the ministry and mission work. The young men at the dormitory not only have the oversight of professors, who live there, but have their own weekly prayer meeting. The College Y. M. C. A. is active and alive. Prof. Spencer has a class in Sunday School Teacher Training, and last year there were thirteen who graduated in that course. The Bible is in the regular course, and every student receives instruction in the Holy Scriptures. In addition to the Bible, the College is offering a course in Religious Education, or a semi-theological course. Dr. Mann held revival services in the College last year, and practically all who were not already professors were converted to Christ.

The attention of the Conference is called to the College Preparatory School. Many of our people are sending their children from home to high schools. To all such we commend the superior advantages in our well equipped Preparatory School.

We incorporate the Report of the Central Campaign Committee:

'To the Board of Education of the Kentucky Wesleyan College: The Central Campaign Committee begs leave to make the following report:

"In round numbers $25,000 has been secured for increased endowment. $7,245.26 has been collected. We recommend the continuance of the campaign."

(Signed) E. G. B. MANN,
J. L. CLARK,
GEO. E. TOMLINSON."

Your Board heartily endorses this recommendation of the Central Campaign Committee to continue the campaign, and looks to each and every pastor, and lay member, of the Conference for loyal co-operation. For it is not only true that things that live must grow, but in the case of our College we must grow to live.

Respectfully submitted,

(Signed) E. G. B. MANN, Chairman.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD.

In the Providence of God the Sunday School has come to be the most fruitful field of church activity.

Therefore, as the Sunday School is the most fruitful field, then every wise and efficient pastor will seek to diligently cultivate this field, and will prepare himself for leadership in this work.

We are glad to report that the Sunday School situation in the Conference presents many encouraging and hopeful indications. The enrollment in the Wesley Bible classes has increased nearly a hundred per cent during the year. The Federation of Wesley Bible Classes held jointly with the Louisville Conference, at Kavanaugh Camp Ground, was a great success, and inspiration. It is interesting to note that it is the largest first Federation meeting ever held. The attendance was estimated at over a thousand, and there were 584 registered delegates. Even greater things are expected of the Federation next year.

There was a slight increase in the number of schools observing Children's Day, and about the same offering. Many of our pastors and superintendents are sadly neglectful of the great opportunity that Children's Day affords.

Teacher training demands our attention at the present time as our most vital need. And we are glad to announce to the Conference that where classes can not be organized that the General Sunday School Board has a correspondence course for the accommodation of individuals. And we urge the use of this correspondence course. We desire to acknowledge the splendid co-operation of the presiding elders in the thirteen institutes held during the year. Pursuant to the instructions of the General Sunday School Board, every district in the Conference has been organized and some are doing good work.

Mrs. G. E. Cameron has been appointed supervisor of the Elementary work for the Conference.

We desire to bear testimony to the very efficient work being done by our new Divisional Secretary, Mr. C. J. Nugent.

Your Board recommends, as a goal for the ensuing year, improvement in four departments, viz.:

1. Teacher Training.
2. Wesley Bible Classes.
3. Children's Day observance.
4. Publicity.

In carrying forward these separate items of the goal Rev. F. T. McIntyre has been elected by the Board to promote Teacher Training in the Conference. Rev. Geo. D. Prentiss has been made responsible for Wesley Bible classes; Rev. J. P. Strother for Children's Day observance; and Rev. J. E. Moss the Publicity in the Central Methodist.

The General Sunday School Board is planning for a two week's School of Methods at Lake Junaluska next July. They expect to secure the best Sunday School talent to be had in the world, and we earnestly urge that our pastors and superintendents see to it that the Kentucky Conference has many workers present.

Your Board greatly appreciates the space given for Sunday School matter in the Central Methodist.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. GREER, Chairman.

J. P. STROTHER, Secretary.

MISSIONARY COLLECTIONS IN THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Whereas, the Discipline requires that all money raised for missions in the Sunday School shall be kept in a separate fund and forwarded as such to the Conference Treasurer and so reported.

Resolved. First, That our preachers and superintendents should fully acquaint themselves with this law and obey it both in letter and in spirit.

Second. That only in cases of extreme necessity should this fund be used to supplement the regular missionary collection and that in these cases we should be extremely careful not to allow it to be pro rated with the other Conference Claims.

C. H. GREER,

F. T. McINTYRE.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

Your Conference Epworth League Board submits the following report:

I. We deplore the fact that, while the report of the Statistical Secretary shows an increase of four in the number of League Chapters in the Conference, yet the same report shows a decrease of several hundred in the number of members of Epworth Leagues. We view with alarm the cold and stolid indifference of many of our pastors who, without doubt, have neglected their opportunity of developing the young life of our church.

II. We most heartily endorse and commend the excellent work now being done by the Conference Epworth League organization. Its officers, both in the Conference organization and in the various Districts, are generally well chosen, efficient, consecrated men and women, and they are rendering most excellent and commendable service to the church and conference in this field of the church's activity.

III. We urge the pastors of the Conference to give their full and earnest support to the Conference Epworth League Assembly, by attending it themselves, when possible, and urging their various churches, whether they have League Chapters or not, to send delegates to the same.

IV. We are happy to note the rising tide of interest in Epworth League work, not only in our Conference, but throughout the church at large. We feel that the League has a distinctive and valuable place to fill in the economy of the church. A place that no other organization, under present methods, can fill. We therefore call upon our preachers and people every where to pray and labor for its larger growth and increased efficiency that it may the better fill its valuable place in the great work of our church. We learn, with joy, from the report of the General Epworth League Secretary that we have now, in the whole church, 3745 Chapters, with 133,044 members, a gain in members of 9013.

Finally. In view of the urgent need of awakened interest in educational matters in our Conference, and the close association between our Epworth Leagues and our educational interests, we respectfully recommend that every League Chapter throughout the Conference observe annually an educational rally service and send to the Conference Board of Education for programs for such service.

AMERICAN BIBLE SOCIETY BOARD.

One hundred years of service has been given by the American Bible Society. A total of 120,000,000 copies of Bibles, Testaments and portions has been distributed over the wide world in more than 100 languages. The work it has done is marvelous.

It has drawn the denominations together in this great work, becoming thereby a bond of unity and a pioneer in co-operation.

It has sought out, and brings the Bible to the poor, the prisoner, the stranger, the destitute and unchurched classes.

In the 100 years, as Almouer of the American people, it has received and spent over $38,500,000.

The impression prevails, far and wide, that the Society is rich. This is not the case. It is true that during the last decade the Society has received two very large legacies. The gift of Mrs. Russell Sage of $500,000, under the condition upon which it was given, and through the generous contribution of the American people, brought into its treasury $1,000,000 as a permanent endowment. This added to other trust funds, the interest on which alone can be used in the Society's work, yields an annual revenue of about $85,000. This would conduct the present operation of the Society for only about two months. The Society has no other endowment or trust funds.

Unrestricted legacy gifts have been held as a Reserve Fund, and used as sparingly as the urgent demands would permit. But these demands have been very pressing, especially in the Far East, and in the United States where new conditions required the creation of nine Home Agencies during the last decade. The Home Agencies alone have necessitated the expenditure of over $100,000 a year.

The mobilizing of our own boys in military camps demands the placing of the Word of God among these soldiers, who are so willing to receive it, but who have little or no money to buy it. The Bible is needed to off-set the evils of camp-life.

All missionary enterprises are calling for help as never before, in order to reap the golden opportunities offered in the work.

The Society's budget for the current year is $652,300. From invested funds about one-sixth of this amount will come. Legacies can be relied on for a part. Sales will bring in more. But the chief financial resource of the Society for this world-wide, soul-saving, life-blessing work, is its living, generous friends.

We recommend the placing of an assessment of $300 on the Conference for the coming year.

CHAS. F. EVANS, Chairman.

JAMES E. WRIGHT, Secretary.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your Committee on Books and Periodicals has had under its reviewing eye the exhibit of the Publishing Agents of our Church, Messrs. Smith and Lamar. We are gratified at the splendid showing the year's business makes. The sales at Richmond, Dallas and Nashville were over $1,000,000.00; a gain of $36,770.00 over the previous year. Net profits for the year were $121,171.00; out of this we are glad to report an appropriation was made of $15,000.00 for our superannuates, and widows and orphans of our preachers.

Our Sunday School literature grows in favor with our people and its circulation shows a steady increase in volume. We urge our preachers and people to use no other Sunday School literature than our own, for we have the best there is.

The Methodist Review, the Christian Advocate, and the Epworth Era are, to our shame, published at a loss of over $11,000, because of the small subscription lists. Let our preachers urge these papers upon our people and assist our Publishing House in extending its business.

We deeply appreciate the efforts of Bros. Mann and Swift to give us a good conference organ, and urge our people to try to put the Central Methodist in every one of our homes. To that end we recommend the plan of "Christian Literature Month" adopted by some of our other Conferences, and that November be set apart in every pastoral charge for the circulation of our church periodicals.

Whereas: This Conference has heard with profound regret of the voluntary retirement of Dr. E. G. B. Mann from the proprietorship and the editorship of the Central Methodist; and

Whereas, For seven years he has borne most heroically the financial burden and difficulties incident to the carrying forward and publication of our Conference organ, and, in spite of the other varied and responsible work of the church which he has performed, has given us a paper of high excellence and of great efficiency, therefore

Resolved, That this Conference extends to Dr. Mann its sincerest gratitude for this self sacrificing and competent service rendered in maintenance and editorship of this paper. And we congratulate him that although he has not retrieved past losses he has at last put our Conference organ upon a safe financial basis.

Furthermore, Be it resolved that we extend to the Rev. W. A. Swift, the newly elected editor, our most hearty welcome and sincere support, in the circulation and maintenance of the interests of the paper under his guiding hand.

(Signed) W. O. SADLER, Chairman.
GRANVILLE E. CAMERON,
Secretary.

TEMPERANCE.

We, your Committee on Temperance, submit the following resolutions:

First. That our people be urged to begin at once a campaign for the nomination and election of officers who will pledge themselves to enforce the prohibition laws we now have, and legislators who will submit to a vote of the people a Constitutional Amendment for State-wide Prohibition.

Second. That we bid God-speed to every organization having for its object the overthrow of the liquor traffic; and that we especially commend to our people the work being done through the non-partisan, interdenominational Anti-Saloon League, and urge all our churches to support it, by taking an offering for it once each year, and by co-operating in every possible way with Rev. N. A. Palmer, State Superintendent of the League, whose policies we deem wise and efficient, and who is himself trustworthy in every way.

Third. That we pledge our people to relentless warfare against this monstrous serpent of iniquity that has retained a strangle-hold on our Federal government since its infancy; has caused a foul blot to adhere to the name of our beautiful state, and has invaded the sacred precincts of our homes, causing the ruin of some of the finest and noblest of our children. Furthermore, we hereby dedicate ourselves, our children and the strength God gives us, to a war against this evil that shall acknowledge no peace save that which shall follow the absolute annihilation of this dreadful curse in all of its forms.

Fourth. We recommend the election of the following as trustees for the State Anti-Saloon League: M. S. Clark, B. C. Horton, W. E. Arnold, James T. Morgan, W. W. Ball.

E. K. ARNOLD, Chairman.
J. W. CRATES, Secretary.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

The Sabbath is a God-given institution, received by man while in his pristine purity, as was marriage. Both were ordained for man's benefit, to meet the needs of his being, and before God can consistently take these institutions away, He must change man's nature. God not only ordained the Sabbath but dignified it by His example. "On the seventh day He rested from all his work which He had made."

"And God blessed the Sabbath day and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which he had created and made." Gen. 2:2-3. Jesus Christ not only observed the day but showed by His example how to keep it. "And He came to Nazareth where He had been brought up, and as His custom was, He went into the synagogue on the Sabbath and stood up to read." So the day is not a Mosaic institution, to pass away with the ceremonial law.

At Sinai God incorporated it with the other commandments,, all of which are in full force today. The purpose of the Sabbath is to give rest to both soul and body. The soul finds rest in communion with God. So the Sabbath is for worship. God has further ordained that man shall worship in the assembly. Experience and observation prove that where men refuse to gather at the house of God, spiritual degeneration follows.

God is jealous of His Sabbaths, for their desecration brought fearful results in judgments upon Israel.

The warring nations of Europe are guilty of this great sin. The United States grew into a great and mighty nation under a Puritanic Sabbath. Today she is drifting into a Continental Sabbath, and unless this movement is checked, this nation is certain to pay the penalty by one of God's last arguments to men, viz., famine, pestilence, or war.

"He is God and He changeth not." Already this nation has been indicted in the High Court of Heaven, tried and convicted, and God is holding up the penalty that we may repent. Steam, electricity and gasoline, the three greatest motive powers yet known to man, are being used to profane the Sabbath of the Lord. Sunday excursions and pleasure seeking are emptying our churches.

Three families in a neighboring town, who were regular attendants at church, purchased machines last spring, and during the summer they were rarely seen at church.

All over the Blue Grass country thousands of people are kept away from church by Sunday visiting. Stores are opened, contracts are made, various kinds of business is transacted on this holy day, and the various forms of Sabbath breaking are too numerous to mention.

What is the remedy?

God's people must unite their efforts and intensify their zeal in opposing these evils. The ministers of the Gospel must preach upon the subject, and teach the people God's commands and His punishments. Literature on the subject must be distributed by the church and ministry. Christians must observe the Sabbath day themselves.

The greatest antidote for all this infraction of God's law is the saving grace of our Lord Jesus Christ.

God used John Wesley to reform the morals and manners of England by preaching holiness and by holy living. The same thing can be done in America, and unless it is done, woe be to our mighty nation! Our fabulous wealth, our proposed armies and navy, our universities, colleges and schools, will not be able to save us from disaster. Patriotism demands that we keep God's Sabbaths. One seventh of time is His; only for our good. And if we will not accept the boon He offers us, we must take the natural consequences. There is no way of escape.

J. J. DICKEY, Chairman.

W. S. VANDERPOOL, Secretary.

ORPHANS' HOME.

We, your Committee on Orphans' Home, beg to make the following report:

First. We have had before us a very complete report from both our financial agent, Mr. E. S. Boswell, and the President, Rev. A. P. Lyon, and have also made special inquiry into the management and conditions of the Home, and are pleased to say that they meet with our unqualified approval.

Second. The President informs us that the management under the new Superintendent, Brother Boswell, has been a decided success, and, knowing him as we do, and his untiring zeal and labor of love in this great cause, we desire to express our entire satisfaction and approval of his work, and to commend him to our Kentucky Conference Methodism for their hearty support and assistance when he comes among them.

Third. The President reports that during the past year there have been received into the Home twenty-one children, fourteen boys and seven girls, and that during this time eleven boys and six girls have been placed in good homes. Fifty children now remain in the Home.

Fourth. We note from President Lyon's report that the Articles of Incorporation have been amended so as to remove any doubt as to ownership or management of the Institution, which meets with our hearty approval. The new charter provides for a Board of twelve members, all of whom are to be members of our own church; four of these members are elected for one year, four for two years, and four for three years. We recommend that this Conference confirm the election of R. E. McDowell, Val Frank Kimbel, Clarence J. Watkins, and G. W. B. Olmstead, for one year; J. C. Strother, Rev. A. P. Lyon, R. M. Smith and Rev. W. E. Arnold, for two years; W. O. Snyder, W.

T. Baker, Dr. C. B. Petrie and Ree Lewis for three years. We also request the confirmation of E. S. Boswell as Agent.

Fifth. We note with much pleasure that during the past year expensive repairs have been made on the Home and other property belonging to us, and that these repairs have been paid for without drawing on either the endowment or the reserve funds, or leaving any indebtedness. Also that substantial bequests have been made by friends of the Home.

Sixth. We desire hereby to express to Dr. Lyon, the President, and to E. S. Boswell, the Agent and Superintendent, and to their efficient Board, our sincere thanks for the business like management and care of our Home, which stands ready to bless and shelter the helpless orphans of our Conference.

7th. We hereto append the financial statement of President Lyon as part of our report.

T. W. BARKER, Chairman.

J. C. VAUGHT, Secretary.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

We, your Committee on District Conference Records, submit the following report:

All seven of the records were in the hands of the committee and carefully examined.

The Covington, Danville, Lexington, and Shelbyville Records have been well and neatly kept.

The Maysville Record failed to state that any Secretary was elected or that the roll was called. It was not signed by either the President or Secretary. Also, the record is not kept in the regular book for that purpose. Otherwise, it was well kept.

The Jackson Record was found to be in every good condition, except that it is not kept in a book made for that purpose, and the paper is of an inferior quality, causing the ink to spread.

In the Frankfort Record, the pastors' names appear, and we suppose the names of the delegates also, but nothing to indicate that delegates are meant. It states also that on motion adjournment was made by Bro. J. J. Dickey. It should have said that on motion made by J. J. Dickey and carried the conference adjourned. However, the Record in the main was very neatly and efficiently kept.

Respectfully submitted,

F. D. PALMETER, Chairman.

W. P. FRYMAN, Secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

DAVID DAVIES,
Conference Cashier.COMMITTEE ON EVANGELISM.

We, your Committee on Evangelism, in annual session unanimously agreed on the following recommendations:

First: We recommend that each pastor, as far as possible, make a revival effort in every church of his charge during the coming conference year.

Second: We recommend that during the year each church, if possible, institute a one-to-win-one campaign for the salvation of souls and additions to the church; not a campaign in form only, but in the power of the Spirit of God.

Third: We recommend that decision day be observed in each

Sunday School of the charges—a service to get the children converted and in the church.

Fourth: We are gratified over the success resulting from pastors assisting each other in revival meetings. We again recommend that our pastors seek the help of each other as much as possible in meetings the coming year.

We had in the treasury at the beginning of the year $37.35. We have paid out $15.00 on expenses of Rev. C. K. Dickey to attend the meeting of evangelists at Nashville last winter leaving $22.35 now on hand.

E. K. PIKE, Chairman.

W. A. SWIFT, Secretary.

LAY ACTIVITIES.

To the Kentucky Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Nicholasville, Ky.:

Your Board of Lay Activities comes to you at the close of this year, with an expression of thanks to our Heavenly Father for His guidance and blessings and for the encouragement we are having in the great Laymen's Movement.

To be sure we have had disappointments and our successes have not measured up to that which we would have liked, but with the Lord of Hosts on our side, we are sure to win, if we faint not, nor grow weary.

At the meeting of the Board of Lay Activities held on Wednesday afternoon, at your conference, reports were made of work and service done by the Conference Lay Leader, District Lay Leaders, Church and Charge Lay Leaders, throughout the year. Then at the public meeting held on Thursday afternoon, District Lay Leaders, Mr. P. H. Taylor, Mr. W. S. Hayes, Mr. B. M. Goldsborough and Dr. T. G. Cook made speeches, giving us an outline of services rendered in their several districts and promises of more faithful service in the year to come; then speeches from our seven presiding elders, declaring allegiance and co-operation with us in the work; and then a few words of encouragement from Dr. E. H. Rawlings, Field Secretary, of the movement.

We take courage and propose to press forward to that end. We declare that we believe "The Every Member Canvass" is successful in its accomplishments, sound in its theory, educational and wholesome in its results, spiritual in its methods, and having the record that it is compulsory by disciplinary requirement.

We urge our pastors and lay leaders to use their utmost endeavors to have this canvass made in every congregation, throughout our entire conference; and we now ask that Sunday, November 12, 1916, be the day for a simultaneous, conference-wide, every member canvass, of our whole Kentucky Conference. With that done, we then request the presiding elders and preachers in charge to make definite engagements for lay leaders, which will not conflict with, but fit into their plans, and to use them to lead services in churches which do not have preaching every Sabbath. The British Wesleyan Church has 20,000 laymen, who hold services on Circuits and insure weekly public worship. Why not our laymen do likewise?

Again we believe that tithing is the reasonable, business like and Scriptural method to be adopted by men for providing finances for the church, and beg of the preachers that they at intervals deliver sermons on stewardship, and that the practice of tithing be urged by all our leaders.

We urge Church and Charge Lay Leaders to co-operate with the presiding elders in providing and securing an adequate support for every preacher in charge in the district.

We consider that the presiding elder and preacher in charge are the logical and divinely appointed shepherds and leaders and earnestly recommend that all plans and efforts be made and executed under their direction and with their approval and co-operation.

And, finally, we declare that we propose to be loyal to the activities in our Church, loyal to the great strategic system of Christian education, and whatever we find to do, do it with our might, and do it now; for now is the only time to which we have any right. We propose to lay up for ourselves treasure in heaven; and the blessing of God which maketh rich, and to which He addeth no sorrow, will abide with us forever.

Fraternally,

W. W. BALL, Chairman.

REV. W. D. GIBBS.

Rev. William D. Gibbs was the son of James J., and Margaret A. Gibbs. He was a native of North Carolina, having been born in that State, December 20, 1873. He came to Kentucky in 1898, and for several years engaged in teaching in Bell and Rockcastle counties. On July 4, 1900, he was united in marriage to Miss Cora A. Yonce, of Broadhead, Ky. To them were born three children; one died in infancy, while Agnes and James remain to comfort their grief-stricken mother.

The religious life of brother Gibbs was very pronounced. While in his twelfth year he was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. As he grew in years, he grew in grace and in the knowledge of the Lord Jesus, until upon reaching mature manhood he had developed into one of the truest and noblest of Christian characters. Goodness and faithfulness were prime qualities, and I think it may be truly said of him that he never betrayed a trust, or failed under any test to exhibit the marks of one who had been with his Lord. He was gentle, and kind, and patient, and knew how to endure afflictions. He could bear as well as do; could suffer as well as triumph; could be reviled and revile not again; and could love and pray for those who would trample upon him, as well as preach the gospel to the multitudes.

Bro. Gibbs had a good mind, well stored with useful knowledge. I do not think he had much schooling except that which was afforded by his native mountains. But he was studious and had read and thought until his acquirements were beyond those of the average man of his years. He was rapidly overcoming difficulties and forging his way upward, and had he lived he would have steadily risen in the conference and increased in usefulness among his brethren.

Bro. Gibbs was licensed to preach by the Danville District Conference in April, 1910. At the session of the Annual Conference held that year at Harrodsburg, he was admitted on trial and appointed to Pineville and Barbourville. This was the only charge he ever had. For three years he served faithfully the churches of this charge, and won a place in the affections of the people among whom he labored. Whether in the mining camps of Straight Creek or among the business and professional men of Pineville, wherever he labored, people were impressed by his sincerity and put a high estimate upon his Christian character.

Just before conference two years ago, he was taken sick. His lungs became involved and it was seen that he could not long survive in the hopeless struggle with tuberculosis. As soon as he could travel upon a cot he was taken back to the mountains of North Carolina, and for two years fought off the approach of death. He wanted to live and care for his wife and children, but was not afraid to die. Indeed Christ had for him robbed death of all its terrors. He was patient in weakness and suffering, joyous through hope, spent much time in prayer for the salvation of the world, preached the gospel to all he could reach, and rejoiced greatly in the conscious presence of his Lord. Requesting his family to meet him in the better world, he fell asleep, September 22, 1915; aged forty-one years, nine months and two days.

W. E. ARNOLD.

CLARENCE JEWELL NUGENT.

Clarence Jewell Nugent was born in Opelousas, La., December 7, 1843. His father, John Nugent, was born and reared at Rathdowny, Ireland, and came to this country when quite a young man. The mother of the subject of this sketch, was the daughter of Judge Seth Lewis, who was for twenty-nine consecutive years the Circuit Judge of the Opelousas District. Both the father and mother of C. J. Nugent were members of the Methodist Church and devout Christians. I quote here from a sketch of his life, written at the request of his son, while stationed at Frankfort in 1903. After affectionately mentioning the high Christian character of his mother, he proceeds to say: "No boy ever had a nobler, braver father than I had. He was a Christian from boyhood. He always held family worship. It was a part of the daily life of our home and it is now, in 1903, one of the sweetest recollections of my childhood. I can never fully know the good it did me. Nothing contributed more to stamp upon my mind and heart the importance of religion and especially the importance of having the right sort. This is so true that I cannot remember when I was not convicted of sin, more or less."

Thrice blest is that child whose life is moulded in the atmosphere of a home of prayer. We may forget many things connected with our childhood, but, ever and anon, the magic power of memory calls up the sacred scenes of the family altar and we feel their impress upon heart and life.

Notwithstanding the hallowed influences of the home life, young Nugent drifted out, for awhile, upon the tide of worldliness and frivolity, but conviction of his waywardness was ever present with him and the prayers of his godly parents followed him until he laid down the arms of his rebellion and made an unconditional surrender to the Captain of his Salvation.

When about eighteen years of age he entered the Confederate Army and for over three years, fought bravely to protect his beloved Southland from the invading hordes of the North. When the war ended he returned to find the old home gone, the blacks scattered and, what most pained his heart, his mother in the kitchen doing the cooking. He says in his life sketch that this nearly broke his heart and impressed upon his mind the realization of the sad consequences of the war. Having fought, however, for what he thought to be right, he readjusted himself to the new conditions and became a loyal son of a reunited nation.

His education was received in the public schools of New Orleans, and several private schools, finishing at the Southern University, Greensboro, Ala., where he completed the four years course in two years, graduating with the A. M. Degree.

Just before his graduation he was licensed to preach in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. About two months after this he was in Kentucky on business and preached his first sermon in Frankfort. He says in regard to this, his maiden effort: "I read my sermon and even with my manuscript before me, I was greatly embarrassed." He was received into the Mobile Conference on trial in December, 1869, at Selma, Ala., and assigned to the Eutaw Charge, but was changed after the adjournment of conference to Wetumka, the former Capital of the State. At the end of that year he was transferred to the North Mississippi Conference and stationed at Friar's Point in Coahoma County, Miss., 115 miles below Memphis. Here he met Miss Addie May Alexander and the refined and cultured young preacher and the bright, vivacious young girl became lovers, and in February, 1874, while he was stationed at Holly Springs, Miss., they were married.

At the end of this year he was transferred to the Mississippi Conference and stationed at Crystal Springs. In November of this year Clarence Jewell Nugent, Jr., entered upon his earth life; he was the first born of two sons, the younger dying in infancy.

We pass over the next three or four years when we find Bro. Nugent a transfer to the Kentucky Conference and assigned to the Somerset Circuit in 1879. Here he received $286 and a house to live in as his year's salary. He subsequently served Nicholasville, Versailles, Maysville, Mt. Sterling, Carlisle, Mt. Hope, Carrollton, Frankfort, New Castle, LaGrange, and other charges. These are not given in regular order, as I have not the data. His faithful wife, who for fourteen years was the efficient Recording Secretary of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Kentucky Conference, fell at her post of duty in New Castle, about three years preceding the husband's death.

Brother Nugent was most loved by those who knew him best. He was a man of culture—a Christian gentleman. I never knew him to say a coarse thing. He was unselfish in disposition. While in the army his brother, William, was made Assistant Adjutant General, and offered him the position of Secretary which would have enabled him to be in the house or tent away from the hissing of ball and shell, but he refused the kind offer, saying: "There are men who have lost arm or leg in the war who can do that; I am needed in the active service." There we see something of the man's character. This unselfishness also characterized his ministerial work. In closing up his work, the Oldham Circuit, although broken in health, hardly able to be on his feet, he tramped from house to house getting up his conference collections. It was not necessary for him to walk, but he was making a brave, hard fight with death and refused to spare himself.

He was at his best in his home. He was a devoted husband, ever tender and kind, and to his son a loving companion and chum. When his son married, Daisey was received as his own beloved daughter and found a place in the warmest corner of his heart; and when the two children came, they too became the objects of his affections. Mrs. Nugent said to the writer: "Father was the best man I ever knew."

For nearly two years he was my pastor when I was the Chaplain of the prison. As a pastor he was faithful; as a preacher, instructive and helpful. He feared not to declare the whole counsel of God. He hated the liquor traffic and hurled his anathemas against it. This rendered him, at times, unpopular with the easy going, but he would make no compromise, beg no quarter. This resulted at the session of the Kentucky Conference held in Maysville, 1890, in his election on the first ballot to the General Conference, in which he was chairman of his delegation.

At the last session of the conference, held at Millersburg, he was compelled, because of failing health, to ask for the superannuate relation which caused him great sorrow. He left the seat of the conference before adjournment, went home with his son to Louisville, grew gradually worse, was removed to the Deaconess Hospital, where he quietly and calmly passed into the great beyond, October 4, 1915. At the hospital he gained the admiration and love of the nurses and all who came in contact with him by his patient and gentlemanly bearing.

The funeral services were held in the church at LaGrange, Ky., in charge of Dr. Foskett, the son's pastor, assisted by the writer and others. We laid his mortal remains by the side of his loved companion in the cemetery at LaGrange. The last hours of the deceased were full of comfort. The gospel that he had so long and faithfully preached sustained him in the dying hour; his anchor held. He exclaimed: "The Bible is true! Yes, all the Bible is true." He went to sleep as peacefully as a child in its mother's arms.

"How blest the righteous when he dies!
When sinks the weary soul to rest,

How mildly beams the closing eyes!
How gently heaves the expiring breast!
So fades the summer cloud away;
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er;
So gently shuts the eye of day;
So dies the wave along the shore.
Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies;
While heaven and earth combine to say,
How blest the righteous when he dies."
T. F. TALIAFERRO.

REV. J. S. SIMS.

James Scott Sims was a full blooded Scotchman, born near Glasgow, Scotland, October 30, 1850. When but a lad his parents brought him to America and located in Virginia, thence to Indiana, where by dint of thrift and frugality, James Scott was educated at De Pauw University, graduating with an A. B. Degree. He received his A. M. in 1885, and the degree of Doctor of Divinity was conferred upon him in 1909.

In 1876 he joined the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and served as pastor at Vanceburg, Stanford, Flemingsburg and Shelbyville. He was then transferred to the Western Virginia Conference and stationed at Parkersburg, serving there four years. He then transferred back to the Kentucky Conference and served the charges of Maysville, Lexington, Frankfort, and Paris, with four years as presiding elder of the Covington District just following his pastorate of four years at First Church, Lexington, and one year on the Maysville District. His one year on the Maysville District was the only break in his unique and remarkable record of serving the maximum of four years in every charge to which he was assigned.

Brother Sims possessed in a distinguished degree the characteristics of his Scotch ancestry. His sturdy strength and brilliant intellect were recognized by all who knew him, but a certain reserve of manner hid his finer qualities from those denied the privilege of intimate acquaintance. He possessed a deep, fervent spiritual life, but it did not find the emotional manifestation to which most of us Methodists are accustomed. He would have been better understood in a Synod or Presbytery of Presbyterians than in a Methodist Conference. But the members of his congregations and the citizens of the towns where he served as pastor, who listened to his eloquent and spiritual sermons, with whom he prayed in their homes, knew him and understood his heart of gold. No pastor was more highly esteemed or dearly beloved. He was not only popular with his own congregation, but he was universally esteemed by all who were so fortunate as to know him. His powerful sermons and loyal friendship made a lasting impression on everyone.

During his pastorate at Paris he made a remarkable record, the membership of the church was increased from 250 to 550, the Sunday School attendance was nearly doubled and the Epworth League membership was increased from 35 to 150. Sunday, November 8, 1914, Brother Sims said: "This is the greatest day of my ministry. I have on previous occasions received as many as 100 persons into the church in one day, but today I have received nearly 200." This was a fitting climax to his useful life.

On May 1, 1878, Brother Sims was married to Miss Mary Lovel, daughter of Hon. Robt. B. Lovel, then of Vanceburg, later of Maysville, Ky. To them was born a son, Robert Lovel Sims, who now holds a responsible business position in Chicago.

Sister Mary Lovel Sims died October 31, 1908. She had been a true helpmeet and Brother Sims never quite rallied from the blow.

While at Paris, God gave to him the love and support of Mrs. Rebecca Freeman, one of the most cultured and charming ladies of Bourbon County. They were married at her elegant home, January 4, 1916; and Brother Sims had planned to spend his eventide on her splendid farm. He was in comfortable circumstances financially and had taken a supernumerary relation at our last Conference. Activity was satisfied and he gracefully retired. He heard the voice which said: "Pause now and lay down the tools of toil, there is something better than labor—there is revery, there is rest." The evening, though short, completed the day as its coronation and benediction. In the tropical land of Florida to which Brother and Sister Sims journeyed after their marriage, the eventide is short, the night descends swiftly. There among the orange groves the past was gathered up and laid at the feet of God and his soul grew strong and longed for the morning of the glorious day when he should be clothed upon with his eternal house not made with hands. All clouds vanished from his skies and with joy he looked into the face of his loving wife and said: "There is nothing to fear; God will take care of us."

God took him, January 12, 1916, at Clermont, Florida. His devoted, heart-broken wife brought his body back to her home, and from there to Maysville, where the funeral services were held in the Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. B. Campbell, assisted by J. D. Redd and C. F. Oney, and W. O. Sadler.

We placed the remains of his mortality by the side of her who had preceded him to the realm of life eternal. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors."

W. O. SADLER.

A Tribute From the Class of 1876.

Another member of the Centennial Class has crossed the dark river and gone to his reward. The manly form of J. S. Sims no longer appears in our assemblies, nor is his voice heard in our councils.

Born on the banks of the Clyde, he was brought to this country in infancy and grew to manhood amid the molding influences of our American civilization. None of us had ever seen him till September, 1876, when we met him in Nicholasville, an applicant with us for admission into the Kentucky Conference.

For almost forty years we were intimately associated with him. We trusted him, we honored him, we loved him. The pulpit was his throne and from this lofty eminence he taught the people the way of salvation. His pastorates were marked by progress. His parishioners always wished we had no time limit. He was wise in counsel and firm in administration.

He was a great preacher, a faithful pastor, and a diligent student. In the great day of eternity many will rise up and call him blessed.

To his wife and son we tender our brotherly sympathy. May it be ours to meet him in the Better Land.

STELLA LUMAN WILLIAMS.

Sister Stella Luman Williams, daughter of H. R. and Elizabeth Luman, and wife of Rev. S. C. Williams, of the Kentucky Conference, was born September 27, 1887, and departed this life August 6, 1916.

When but a ten-weeks-old babe, her mother died, leaving her to the care of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Riggan. For fourteen years previous to her marriage, she made her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Luman, of Mt. Carmel, Ky. It was while here she met Rev. S. C. Williams, and after a happy courtship, she became his wife on December 30, 1914.

Sister Stella from a child loved the Sunday School and church, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Mt. Carmel, Ky., under the pastorate of Rev. J. W. Gardiner, when she was about thirteen years of age.

She was gloriously and happily converted in the home of her grandparents, when a little girl, and received the baptism of the Holy Ghost sometime afterward while in secret prayer. It was her delight to bear witness to these two definite works of grace in her heart.

Sister Williams was an every-day Christian, and was faithful in all the work of the church.

Her married life was a happy one—short though it was, but in every way she could, she endeavored to help her husband in his work, and to me, as their friend, he bore testimony of her worth and devotion.

It was quite a surprise to me when at her request on August 6, 1916, I was called over long distance telephone and received the sad news of her departure, and the request to conduct her funeral. On August 8, 1916, in the presence of a great number of friends and relatives we preached her funeral in the Methodist Church at Mt. Carmel, Ky., assisted by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Matthews. She was laid to rest in the Mt. Carmel cemetery.

Sister Williams was a worker in the vineyard of the Lord; but through all the ages God has called his workers home. So, while God in His wisdom has called this hand-maiden of His—so young, so hopeful, and so ambitious—from the side of our young brother, we trust that he will take up the burden and labor willingly until God shall say, "'Tis enough—come home."

W. L. CLARK.

D. W. BATSON.

David Wesley Batson, the subject of this sketch, was born at Oddville, Harrison County, Ky., February 17, 1854. His father was Dr. John Drummond Batson, son of John Dies Batson, who was born in Millersburg, Ky., in 1824. Prof. Batson's mother was Susanna C. Crow, daughter of Rev. James C. Crow, whose wife was a daughter of Rev. Josiah Whitaker, a distinguished pioneer Methodist preacher, who located in Harrison County early in the nineteenth century, and was a great factor in planting Methodism in that county. Mrs. Batson was distinguished for her piety.

David was dedicated to God in infancy, and the hand of God seemed to be upon him through life. He was a precocious child. He could read at five, and started to school at that age. When ten, returning from a menagerie, he made clay images of many of the animals and birds, and so well executed were they that they could easily be recognized. At twelve he became interested in Astronomy, and made a telescope through which the moons of Jupiter were clearly visible. When a little over thirteen years of age, he received a first class certificate and taught school near his home, giving entire satisfaction to his patrons. At fourteen, he entered the Preparatory Department of Kentucky Wesleyan College, from which he graduated in 1874, with the degree of Bachelor of Arts. The following ten years he filled the Abram Megowan chair of Mathematics in his Alma Mater, and for fifteen years the chair of Natural Sciences. During thirteen of these years he was President of the institution, beginning in 1879. All of these positions he filled with marked ability. Then he left the College, and for fifteen years he was, first, Editor-in-Chief, then Associate Editor of the Central Methodist. This record shows forty years of service to the church he loved, which had fostered him in his infancy and childhood, and had prepared him for his life work through the institution of learning which she had founded. The Conference College and the conference organ are the church's greatest auxiliaries. To the promotion of these this man gave his life.

As a student he was among the brightest. Even in the first years of his student life he began to throw over the faculty and students that hypnotic spell that in after years fell on all who met him. It was common for the dolts and sluggards to seek his room at night to secure aid for the morrow's recitations, and the smiling Batson would help them pull their load. As a teacher he excelled. He could make his hands obey his eye and brain. His penmanship was exquisite. He was a skilled experimenter. The teacher's platform was his throne. His clear head made it easy for him to make things plain to his pupils, and he had the gift of enthusing his students, which is a tower of strength in a teacher. A leading educator of Europe, who spent many months visiting the colleges and universities of America, came to Kentucky Wesleyan College, where he remained several days, spending the greater part of the time with Prof. Batson, observing closely his class-room work. After this investigation he declared that, in all the colleges and universities visited by him, he had found no teacher better equipped and more efficient in teaching the natural sciences.

He was elected President of the College at the age of twenty-five, the youngest College President in the United States. In this position, his fine executive ability found opportunity for exercise. He was affable and approachable, but firm and resolute.

In 1879, a crisis came in the history of the College. The income was insufficient, and grave fears were entertained that the doors would have to be closed. Batson threw himself into the breach. He offered to take the income from the endowment, and become financially responsible for the salaries of the faculty and for other necessary expenses. The Board gladly closed with the offer and elected him

President. By heroic sacrifice of toil and means he tided the institution over the shallows into a deeper and open sea.

It was as the servant of the church that his life work was done, and as such he deserves a high place in her annals. These services involved a degree of self-sacrifice known to but few. It was not a lack of self-reliance or appreciation of his own ability that caused him to ignore the alluring offers to join his fortunes to other institutions of learning, which he persistently refused. It was his loyalty and devotion to his own church that decided his course. He was fully conscious of his own powers and he longed and yearned to give them development. He had a burning ambition to be a scholar. He wished for the privileges and opportunities of the University, and he carried this unsatisfied ambition with him to the grave. If heroes are made by self-denial and unselfish and unrequited service to mankind, then D. W. Batson holds high rank in that illustrious company. The College was his first love. He gave it the best in himself. He is its greatest benefactor. Others have wrought well and are worthy of all praise; he carried the burden when no other was found to shoulder the load. This is the glory of his life.

As editor of the Central Methodist he wrought well. Here, as always, his clear head, his sound judgment, and his discrimination were evident. He made a good paper, and each issue was a little better than the one before it. His editorials were short and to the point. His selected articles showed excellent taste and good judgment.

His social qualities were of high order. It was a trait of his character to be kind and affable. It was the milk of human kindness sweeping along the currents of his life blood. His kindness flowed as readily to those who needed his help as to those from whom he could receive help. He was a Chesterfield to the aged woman in homespun, as well as to the great lady in silks and diamonds.

In early life he took the vows of the Methodist Church, and kept them sacredly to the end.

He was married to Miss Annie E. Field, of Natchez, Miss., June 5, 1890. Rev. Morris Evans performed the ceremony in Richmond, Ky. She survives him. They had no offspring. His death occurred in Lexington, Ky., May 10, 1916. His end came suddenly and unexpectedly. While talking to a friend in the office of E. H. Byars, he fell from his chair and expired. A service was held in the presence of his lifeless form at his late residence in Lexington, at which Rev. J. J. Dickey delivered a brief address; and a funeral sermon was preached by Rev. A. Redd, at Oddville, Ky., where he was buried. Dr. J. L. Clark, President of Kentucky Wesleyan College, and a former pupil of Prof. Batson, made feeling reference to the character and ability of the deceased. Several other ministers paid high tribute to the noble life just ended. At the Chapel of Kentucky Wesleyan, a memorial service was held, in which the members of the Faculty gave expression to their estimate of the distinguished scholar and teacher whom some of them knew so well. He has gone from our sight, but he still lives in the characters he moulded, and in the principles he inculcated.

Science Hill School

Shelbyville, Ky.

Science Hill is a preparatory school for Wellesley, Vassar, Smith, Mount Holyoke, Randolph-Macon and other colleges—to all of which graduates are admitted on certificate.

The school offers unusual facilities for those who expect to become teachers. The instructors are all graduates of the best colleges and universities; each having done special work in the department in which she teaches in the school.

The departments of piano, violin and voice are in the charge of women who have had years of study with eminent teachers of this country and of Europe as well as successful experience in teaching. Domestic Science and Art classes are in the hands of superior teachers.

The boarding department is limited so that each student receives personal supervision and attention. The school is especially adapted to the care of younger pupils. For recreation the girls have horseback riding, tennis, basket-ball, hockey, fencing and indoor games all carefully directed by a resident gymnasium teacher.

Trolley connections with Louisville permit attendance at plays, concerts and other educational entertainments in the city.

1. THE SCHOOL OF LIBERAL ARTS (Emory College) offers courses in English, Spanish, French, German, Greek, Mathematics, Physics, Chemistry, Biology, Mental and Moral Science, History, Political Economy, and Biblical Literature, leading to the usual literary degrees. This department has a library of 50,000 volumes.

2. THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY (The Candler School of Theology). Offers full and varied courses leading to the degree of B. D. The library of the School of Theology is rich and grows richer daily. To it belongs the famous "Thursfield-Smith Collection of Wesleyana," which includes hundreds of autograph letters of the Wesleys and other Methodist celebrities.

3. THE SCHOOL OF MEDICINE (The Atlanta Medical College). A medical college of first grade, offers courses in medicine and surgery covering four years and leading to the degree of M. D. By arrangement with the Grady Hospital, the municipal hospital of Atlanta, and the Wesley Memorial Hospital, which is a part of the University system, the School of Medicine is able to offer clinical advantages of great value to students.

4. THE SCHOOL OF LAW ("The L. Q. C. Lamar School of Law"). Was opened on September 27th, in a most beautiful building and with a large library. The "case method" of instruction is used in the work of the school, and the course of study, which leads to the degree of LL.B., is as thorough and extensive as that offered in any first class law school in the United States. In Atlanta every court known to the judicial system of America, except the U. S. Supreme Court, holds regular sessions. "The Lamar School of Law" therefore, offers unsurpassed advantages for students preparing for the legal profession.
